

EXERCISE 6

1) Write shell script to show various system configuration like

a. Currently logged user and his log in name

A: who

b. Your current shell

A: echo $SHELL

c. Your home directory

A : cd ~

d. Your operating system type

A:uname -o

e. Your current working directory

A : pwd

2. Write shell script to show various system configurations like

a. your OS and version, release number, kernel version

A: uname

b. all available shells

A: cat /etc/shells

c. File system (Mounted)

A: findmnt -l